"AN IDEAL HUSBAND" at Theatre X Apr. 5-30

Theatre X continues its tribute to literary legend Oscar Wilde with a presentation of AN IDEAL HUSBAND April 5-30. Riding on the success of last December's "Lord Alfred's Lover," artistic director John Schneider (a Theatre X-er for 23 years) and the Theatre X company will present this seldom-seen Oscar Wilde comedy at the Broadway Theatre Center's Studio Theatre, 158 N. Broadway Ave.

"An Ideal Husband," though rarely performed in the United States, "is the quintessential Wilde — Wilde writing dangerously close to his own skin," remarks Schneider, "To me, it's a more compelling play than 'The Importance of Being Earnest' and every bit as funny."

At the center of the play is Robert Chiltern, played by John Kishline, a rising politician being blackmailed by a glamorous adventuress for a crime committed early in his career. Robert's predicament provides him with material for a non-stop string of comic one-liners as well as a hilarious battle of the sexes. "An Ideal

We wish her well!

Husband" is a scathing analysis of morality as preached by politicians and the press in Victorian England, one that is astonishingly timely today.

Performance previews will be held Wed., April 5 (at a discounted price of $10) and Thurs., April 6, at 7:30 pm, featuring Theatre X's "pay-what-you-can" discount.

Tickets are available at the Broadway Theatre Center, 158 N. Broadway Ave., or by calling (414) 278-0555.
