Teen Group To Meet at ZA's

Nearly thirty people from Green Bay and Appleton attended the March 26 meeting of the newly-forming Horizons gay/lesbian teen support group at the Brown County Library in Green Bay.

Teens attending the meeting offered the group their opinions on what would be most useful to them. One teen commenting at the number of young people attending was surprised to find that she was not the only gay teen in her community.

The group plans to hold its next input meeting at ZA's night club on Sunday, April 9, beginning at 7:00 PM. ZA's was chosen because of its popular Sunday "dry night" which draws young adults and older teens from throughout northeastern Wisconsin and upper Michigan. The meeting will occur just prior to the start of the "dry night".

Horizons is also in the process of applying for a grant to obtain start-up monies from the Cream City Foundation in Milwaukee.

Harry and Joyce meanwhile are progressing toward a serious commitment. That is, until she finds out Jeff is a homosexual, at this point she decides to end the relationship. Harry and Jeff are now about to discover the strength of their familiar bond. And that loyalty-like acceptance- is truly an act of love.

"The Sum Of Us" stars Russell Crowe and Jack Thompson, directed by Kevin Dowling and Geoff Burton. The film is produced by Hal McElroy, the screenplay is written by David Stevens, based on his award winning play and is presented by The Samuel Golwyn Company.

"Strawberry And Chocolate" is the second film. This is a collaboration between the Cuban Institute of Art and Film Industry (ICAIC), the Mexican National Film Office (IMCINE), Tabasco Films, Telemadrid and S.G.A.E. It was filmed on location in Cuba, Mexico and Spain. Co Directed by Tomas Guterrez Alea and Juan Carlos Tabio. Screenplay written by Senel Paz, direction by Mario Garcia Joya.

This film has already won awards at the Berlin International Film Festival, and the Latin American Film Festival in Havana, Cuba.

David and Diego are complete opposites. David studies political science. Diego is an artist. David is uptight. Diego is tolerant. David is standoffish. Diego is embracing. David is straight. Diego is gay. Their tumultuous friendship begins in a Havana ice cream parlor when Diego boldly attempts to pick up David who steadfastly rebuffs his advances.

Add to this mix Nancy who is avidly looking for a man of her own, and Miguel, David's fellow student who has no time for "people like Diego" and now the fun really begins! Based on a short story by Senel Paz, "The Wolf, The Forest, and The New Man" STRAWBERRY AND CHOCOLATE is a witty socio-political commenting on life in Cuba. The film is set against the backdrop of Havana - a society that has always looked askance at homosexuality, as well as other personal freedoms.

Also coming April 14 is a film not being reviewed here but also touching on the gay theme called "Priest".

Mama Roux celebrated their first anniversary recently featuring a live band, "The Ghillies". A great time was had by all, including our photographer, who perhaps had a little too much fun! Photos by Eric & Mark

Movies Coming To The Oriental

There are Two films coming to the Oriental Theater in May you wont want to miss! Both films deal at least partly with Gay themes. The first film I want to talk about, "The Sum Of Us" will run beginning April 21. There is also a Wisconsin Benefit Premier of this film on Tuesday, April 18 at 7:30 p.m. at the Downer Theater For Pridefest '95 250 seats are available and all proceeds except the $300 theater rental will go to Pridefest. Tickets for this fundraiser are $10 in advance, $12 at the door. Advance tickets are available at AfterWords, In Step, Just Us, M&M Club & The Downer Theater. This event is Co-sponsored by AfterWords Books, In Step Magazine & The Wisconsin Light Newspaper.

Since I have not had the opportunity to see these films, I will highlight the information sent to me from Landmark Theater Corporation so you can see if the films interest you.

"The Sum Of Us" is one of the most acclaimed international films of 1994 and presents a warm and comic look at the drama of life as it relates to the unique bond between a father and his son. This film won the 1994 Sydney Film Festival award for Best Film, three Film Critics Circle of Australia awards, including Best Actor and Best Screenplay, and the 1994 Montreal Film Festival and Australian Film Institute awards for Best Screenplay.

Basically, this film is about a father and son both looking for someone to love. Harry, the father, has ventured into the age of computer dating and finds his heart taken by Joyce. "Now if he could convince his son to brave the journey toward true love. At the rate he's going, Jeff will never find Mr. Right!

Jeff is not as brave as his father when it comes to dating and is trying to work up the courage to befriend Greg, a handsome young gardener he saw at a local bar. Dad ends up being a well meaning nuisance on Jeff & Greg's first date.

Recently-elected AW President Juliet Brodie
of Madison and AW Region III
representative Mike Fitzpatrick of Green Bay were both selected by the program's producers to sit on the "citizen high court" of questioners
in the Supreme Court chambers of the state Capitol building, the site of the debate telecast.
A third AW at-large representative, Laura Riggs of Madison, was also in the general audience but did not have the opportunity to ask a question of the candidates.

Brodie pressed the candidates on their opinions of last year's Angel Lace verdict, in which the high court ruled 4-3 that the lesbian life partner of Angel's natural mother could not adopt the child to ensure the preservation of that family unit. Brodie also challenged the pair to provide a definition of family that would refect the realities of 1990's Wisconsin.

Fitzpatrick quizzed the candidates on whether Judge Crooks' recent TV ads were politicizing
the nonpartisan election by using the term "conservative choice."

Following the debate both Brodie and Fitzpatrick were interviewed by reporters and their comments on the debate and Action Wisconsin affiliations were printed in papers across the state.

"It was really a thrill to have Action Wisconsin gain such an active role in the debate," Brodie said.
"Wisconsin's politicians, educators and policymakers of all kinds can expect to be hearing from Action Wisconsin again in the near future. Our goal is to be both a highly visible and effectively
pro-active voice for Wisconsin's lesbian, bisexual, gay and transgendered community."

Corrections

In the March 23 issue of Quest, Mike Fitzpatrick's article on the April 4 was submitted with a typographical error which created a factual error.
The composition of the current Wisconsin
Supreme Court contains two liberal, two moderate and two conservative justices for a total of six returning jurists, not two liberal to moderate and two conservative justices which totals four.

Secondly, the April meeting of Positive Voice will occur on Monday, April 17. The article submitted on the home buying presentation that was offered at the group's March 20 meeting contained an April notation.
