On our Cover...

This issue we feature Lee Arthurs as our cover model. Lee has taken design courses and has produced his own newsletter using desktop publishing equipment that he distributed all over the US. This guy is currently looking for work in Madison or the valley area. I didn't have a lot of time to spend with Lee, so I hope to get him to come back again for another shoot soon.

We have finally returned to having a few covers the way I like em', easy on the eyes and fun to shoot. I have been sooooo busy, and this is the first opportunity I have had to do model shoots all summer. We were busy all day, so look for more of these covers coming soon!

(If you want to be a Quest cover model, send us a picture & info!)

JOHN MACK'S (ACTORS' WORK-SHOP) LATEST PROJECT - "JACOB" -

John Mack says he's trying to reach as many people as possible to tell them about his latest project, Talking With Jacob. (Quest is glad to help!)

'Jacob' is a comedy for and about the gay community. I've written the script myself, and am currently workshopping it with Brian Lewis, Ryan Rooyackers and Michel Van Zeeland. I've researched gay American and British drama extensively and think this is probably my strongest script - my fourth - to date.

To my knowledge, there has never been a production of an openly gay-related play performed in the Fox River Valley. I'm curious, and a little nervous, to see the response. Negative stereotypes run rampant everywhere, and this play tries to break those. We're hoping the members of the Fox Valley community want to start dealing with these issues. With the increasing visibility and nationwide acceptance of homosexuality, the Valley needs some positive images. This play provides those. It also provides some serious challenges to the audience; would those of you who have seen one of my productions expect anything less? There is some strong language and violence, but these are balanced with humor and genuine warmth. I believe we have a solid production and hope you'll attend.

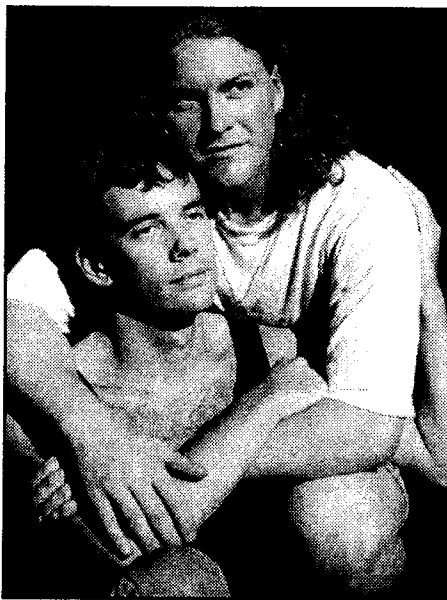

Performances are Sun., Mon. & Tues., August 13-14-15, at the Little Sandwich Theatre in Appleton's Valley Fair Mall, Curtain at 8:00, tickets $6. Act 2 is sponsoring this production by allowing us to use their space, free of charge, so all profits will be going to the Fox Valley AIDS Project. Reserve seats by calling (414) 738-9804. Need more info? Call John at 751-0931.
