Camp Heartland Benefit at Sass

"COMMITMENT TO LOVE" GAY AND LESBIAN WEDDING FAIR
CELEBRATES THIRD YEAR

"Birds do it, bees do it" and gays and lesbians are beginning to ask "Why don't we do it?" Many gays and lesbians are deciding to hold formal ceremonies to celebrate the union of their lives. So many, in fact, that companies involved in weddings and all that they entail are eyeing the market. The annual "Commitment to Love" benefit, to be held Sun., Feb. 4, 3:00-6:00 p.m., at the Halsted Street Cafe, 3641 N. Halsted, Chicago, is a "wedding" fair specifically geared toward this growing market.

The 'benefit' organization is Horizons, which provides social services to the gay, lesbian and bisexual community.

Gay and Lesbian couples planning a ceremony or reception need the same services as traditional wedding couples; caterers, florists, special clothing, banquet halls, etc. In its first two years "Commitment to Love" provided an opportunity for more than 1,000 people to meet with the businesses and individuals providing the goods and services couples needed.

For more info., contact producer Rick Karlin, 5209 N. Ashland Ave., Chicago, IL 60640-2001, telephone (312) 784-6956 or fax (312) 784-1714 during regular office hours.

GAY COMIC JASON STUART AT GREEN BAY'S FUNNY BONE

(Exclusive Interview in Our Next Issue)

Actor/Comic Jason Stuart, the first openly gay comic will headline The Funny Bone in Green Bay, January 17-21.

The Funny Bone recently opened in Packer City, and is being warmly received by northeastern Wisconsin folks!

Jason recently completed a co-starring role in the farcial comedy "Gay TV: The Movie" with independent filmmakers Jon Paul and Pamela Buchmeyer, scheduled for release in theatres across America this summer.

While shooting the film in Dallas, Jason performed at the Texas State Fair for National Coming Out Day and shared the stage with Candace Gingrich and Chastity Bono. And, if that's not enough, he flew to St. Louis to headline Gay Pride and received a standing ovation.

As Quest goes to press, a member of our editorial staff is completing an interview which will appear in our next issue.

FROM THE DESK OF CHINEQUA

Chinny-Go Girl:

Oh girl, the horror! Just before I was going on-stage to perform my talent portion of the very prestigious Miss Wisconsin Tuesday Evening Beer Bust - At Large pageant, my new scarlet Vivienne Westwood "pumps" were missing. I desperately searched on my hands and knees, but to no avail! They were nowhere to be found. Well, I couldn't perform to "I Am What I Am" with high-tops on, so I toughed it out without them. Anyway, I slipped and fell while performing. I had to settle for the humiliation of 1st-runner-up. After the show, I found them in the garment bag of the bitch who won. Well, I went directly to the officials about this but they did nothing. A pageant of this magnitude shouldn't be so corrupt, action needs to be taken, what should I do? She must be stopped!!! Help me Chinny-Baby-, you're my only hope!

Puss Puss LaCroix

LaCroix, Darling

Get over it. Corruption was the favorite name in drag even before Whitney made her first ballad. Why when they originally said the phrase, it was "all is fair in love and drag." So darlin, my advice to you is if you can't stand the heat, burn the bitches kitchen down. Hint one, lose some weight. Nothing pisses a girl off more than watching you look good. Hint two--super glue her duct tape. Evil...but effective. And when all else fails darlin, replace her tape of "The greatest love of all" with Juice Newton's Greatest Hits. Oh the joy. Hats off to you darlin. Even being willing to write me after such a horror shows your strength.

Lovin ya, Chinequa

Dear Chinequa,

I have a son and I don't know what to do with him.. He wont leave his trailer, wont return my calls, and is completely self absorbed in the Enquirer. How can I reach him, the poor lost soul???

Lost him in Louisiana

Dear Lost:

Quit writing mom, I'm trying to make a livin. Besides Enquiring minds want to know.

Your DAUGHTER Chinequa.

Look in next issue for the "I Made It Through The Holidays Extravaganza." Advise and wisdom from Cheniqua.

Letters reach Chinequa by writing Quest
or E-Mail at CHINNYGG@AOL.COM
