BOOK IN REVIEW BY JERRY WELLENS, Ph.D.

Don't Be Afraid Anymore-The Story of Rev. Tony Perry and The Metropolitan Community Church
 by Rev. D. Perry with Thomas Swicegood, St.
 Martin's Press, New York, 1990, $12.95

On October 6, 1968, the first Metropolitan Community Church was born, the church with a mission to minister to lesbians and gay men. This is the story of that church and its founder, Rev. Troy Perry. Raised among Pentecostals and Baptists, married at eighteen, and a pastor for the Church of God until he was excommunicated for homosexuality, Troy Perry spent years searching until he found his calling; ministering to those believers the churches had driven away.

For almost three decades the MCC Church has struggled with adversity, survived the fire bombings of twelve of its churches, and has grown, until today, with over two hundred congregations in nine countries, it is the largest organization in the world ministering to gay people.

At times it is very painful to read this quasi-autobiography. The frequent rejections and disappointments he suffered, because he was a gay minister, touches our own painful struggles to be gay and lesbian. I remember in 1974 reading The Lord is My Shepherd And He Knows I'm Gay, written by Rev.
 Perry the year before. It started my own healing of the pain caused by my repressive religious education that was at the root of my self-hatred as a gay man. I'm sure Rev. Perry has equally touched countless gay and lesbians lives to reconcile with the God of their childhoods. Rev. Perry suggests we take solace in Gospel of St. Matthew, 5:10-11,
 "Blessed are you when people shall reproach you, and persecute you, and say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake."

In this book, Rev. Perry takes us through all of the Biblical passages used against gays & lesbians and shows us Hebrew and Greek words that he maintains have been poorly translated and used harshly against us.

As Rev. Perry says, "The Rev. Jerry Falwell is such a person-unloving. Working out of Lynchburg, Virginia, he has, with malice, used homosexuals to promote his own ambitions. It is most unfortunate that his followers, good Baptists, have permitted their inbred disapproval of gay sexuality to let Falwell delude them into believing the selected uncharitable deeds and thoughts are acceptable within their Christian way of life. Such an idea is contrary to every word Jesus ever uttered, and therefore can never be valid!"

He points out the contradiction in which there are vast differences in doctrine between various

Christian denomination, all of which use the same Bible. He says such differences have led some Christians to claim that other Christians are not really Christians at all. Biblical interpretations and theology differ from church to church except in their harsh interpretations of the Biblical passages used against us.

In reading this book, you will see our civil rights struggle from Stonewall to 1990, the year of publication.

What impressed me about Rev. Perry is almost three decades of courage to stand up for gays and lesbians in all facets of our lives. Today, gays and lesbians have many civil liberties and growing acceptance by the general population because of him and his painful struggles. I believe Rev. Troy Perry will be honored in future decades as a driving force in gaining equality, social justice, and freedom to be ourselves. I would highly recommend that gays and lesbians read this inspirational book.

Possum Queen '97 Interview

I hate to admit it, but I'm not nearly as cosmopolitan as I wish I were. When I was asked to interview this year's winner of the Possum Queen Title, I had to have someone explain to me it was a charity event held in Milwaukee that, in the end, benefits persons with AIDS. For our Northeastern Wisconsin readers, think of it as Milwaukee's version of the Guernsey Gala.

The ignorance of the fund raiser didn't end there: It took me a whole week to figure out that this year's winner, Jack E. O. Gasm., is not a man wearing sequins and duct tape. Ms. O is actually a woman! How novel!

Jack E., also known as Jaclyn Brennan, sounds a lot more like my own mom than I'm sure either one of us would care to admit. The current Possum Queen has a lot of individualistic ideas, including a great idea about growing into retirement:

Jackie Brennan: I'm forty-seven. I went to high school in the sixties, and college in the late sixties and early seventies. At that time, I thought, "I'm not going to a nursing home!" I'd like to buy a big house with four different porches, and have all the different friends that you meet and make your own commune for retirement! So, the people I meet? I invite them to my porches! (Sighs) But, you have to have four sides. If you don't want to talk to someone, you can go to another porch. (Laughs) That's my idea of retirement.

Jess Littleman: How are you doing today?

JB: I'm doing fine!

JL: You won the Possum Queen title this year...How did you get involved in this?

JB: Well...I started last year—I ran for Possum Queen, I was runner-up—actually, I would go with a few of my friends to the M&M Club. They needed a candidate two years ago. They cornered me, talked me into it, and I had a lot of fun last year. I said I would do it one more year. I set my goal at ten thousand [dollars], of which I earned $10,093! [I did] everything from Chicken Bingo (author's note: Think Cowpie Bingo!), to Racetrack Trips, to selling Mardi Gras beads, to reading palms, to telling a joke for a dollar...all sorts of little things. It ran for about two months and the finals were at Pridefest, Friday, June Sixth.

JL: Cool!

JB: It was cool. I was waiting until they announced at the last minute—(Pauses) It's kinda nice!

JL: What is the purpose of this event? Not everyone knows what the Possum Queen title does...

JB: Well, it started out as a joke about seven years ago, and the money at that time went to the Milwaukee AIDS Project. Now the money goes to a few others, but they're all AIDS-related. It's either for home health care or the BESTD Clinic in Milwaukee for AIDS testing. It goes to the food pantry, to home assistance, dental care—anything that somebody might need at the time. Even cash flow, if someone is very ill—it takes six months before Social Security can kick in. It goes to the Community. It goes to anyone that has AIDS that needs some type of care.

JL: Do you expect to do anything during your reign as Possum Queen?

JB: I hope not! (Laughs) I think that's one of the nice things about it! You don't have to do that much. I think most of the work is done prior to winning...once it's done, it's just a matter of awareness. All of the bars have a candidate, and it's about [eight weeks] of time. There's a breather, then it will start again next spring.

The first year they raised seven hundred dollars. Last year, they raised twenty-two thousand—this year, a total of twenty-six thousand. So, every year it gets a little bit bigger, and...the goal is eventually to get other cities involved in it, that it can be a [state event]. That's the reason why the finals were moved down to PrideFest—to get more awareness for the Possum Queen.

Jackie told this interviewer that besides having a lot of fun running for the title, she hopes that there is more awareness now about AIDS. She hopes that more people get involved in AIDS awareness and assistance programs in your own community. There are few precious few people in this world who put their time and abilities towards a cause as selflessly as Ms. Brennan, and the other contestants of events like the Possum Queen. In the wake of June 20th, a day set aside to show compassion to those who live with AIDS and the HIV virus, I hope we all can find solace in strength in the likes of Jackie Brennan.

Mr. Gay Wisconsin-USA 1997 co-sponsored by Za's Bar in Green Bay and Quest was a wonderful success. Ken Kujava provided judges from SideTracks and Little Jim's in Chicago to make sure this was a fair race. Every contestant did his best to prove there is a lot of talent up North and Douglas Baines, the national titleholder was especially fun in that towel number. Winning first place again this year was Jeffrey Jennings. First runner-up is Tony K (Right) with Johnny B taking second runner-up (left) Now it's time to get ready for the national competition!

PAST/OUT

BY DAVID BIANCO

June, 1947 (50 years ago this month): Vice Versa, America's first lesbian publication, appears in Los Angeles.

When did the American gay and lesbian press begin?

Fifty years ago this summer, the first hand-typed copies of the first lesbian publication in America began to be circulated among lesbians in Los Angeles. Vice Versa was a far cry from today's professional gay and lesbian publications, but it served much the same purpose - albeit on a smaller scale.

Vice Versa was created by Edyth Eyde, a 26-year old California woman who had only been part of the lesbian "scene" for about a year. (Eyde never used a byline in her publication, but later went under the pseudonym "Lisa Ben," an anagram for lesbian). Somewhat lonely, and eager to expand her circle of friends beyond the "gay gals" who hung out at Los Angeles' If Club, Eyde decided to start a magazine for lesbians. She called it Vice Versa, because its readers had been accused of "vice," but she felt their lives were really just "versa" that of the rest of the population.

As an underworked secretary for an executive at RKO Studios, Eyde was given explicit instructions to "look busy" at all times, even when there was no work to be done. She therefore had both the time and the equipment to type issues of her new magazine. Eyde would use RKO's heavy-duty typewriter to type an original copy of Vice Versa plus five carbons, and then she would repeat the process - meaning each issue had a circulation of exactly twelve. She would then distribute those copies through friends and at lesbian bars (she stopped mailing copies when a friend warned her she was risking jail time) and urged the women who read it to pass the copy along to other women. Many did, and Eyde once estimated that each copy was read by several dozen women.

A typical issue of the free publication - which at its thickest contained 20 pages - consisted of fiction, poetry, essays, book and film reviews, and letters to the editor. Most of the content was written by Eyde, but after the first few issues she had several other contributors - though none was ever given a byline.

Many of the issues addressed in Vice Versa (subtitled "America's Gayest Magazine") are still commonly discussed in the lesbian and gay press a half-century later. The magazine published a short story about a lesbian wedding, a poem by Eyde which frowned upon butch hair and clothing styles among her fellow lesbians, and a movie review objecting that the movie version of the classic lesbian novel The Well of Loneliness was insulting to lesbians.

Vice Versa was unwaveringly upbeat and cheery - a conscious strategy on Eyde's part to combat negative mainstream press accounts of gay and lesbian life. More than 20 years before the first gay pride parade, Vice Versa was unabashed in its enthusiasm for homosexuality. One essay stated: "How much more beautiful, in every way, are women than men! I am glad that I was not predestined to be oblivious to and unattracted by feminine charm. How thankful I am to have been born in womanly form and yet to possess the capacity of appreciating to the fullest extent feminine beauty!"

But Vice Versa contained no news, no political columns - and not a single advertisement. Eyde was afraid to publicize the locations of lesbian bars, for example, for fear that they would be raided or shut down. And several years would pass before American gays and lesbians would explicitly portray themselves as a social group with a political agenda.

Although Vice Versa was not expressly political, the very act of representing women-loving women's lives in the late 1940s was bold and risky. By creating a conduit by which lesbians could communicate with one another - and perhaps more importantly, by helping lesbians think about themselves as part of a community - Vice Versa nurtured the seed which would grow in the next decade into America's first lesbian social and political organizations.

The reader response was overwhelming. Without access to a printer, Eyde was forced to deny repeated requests from lesbians for more copies of the publication. The letters to the editor expressed a sense that Vice Versa served as an oasis in a desert of misinformation and silence about lesbian life. One woman wrote: "May your jaunt into journalesbianism prove to have the angels' support."

Eyde produced a total of nine issues of Vice Versa over nine months, until her job assignment was changed in early 1948. She no longer had access to a typewriter or the time to devote to the magazine. Nonetheless, her personal life had been enriched by all the women she met while producing Vice Versa, and she predicted that the gay and lesbian press had a bright future even without her. In an editorial, she wrote:

"Perhaps even Vice Versa might be the forerunner of better magazines dedicated to the third sex, which in some future time might take their rightful place on the newsstands beside other publications, to be available openly and without restriction to those who wish to read them."

MIRIAM BEN-SHALOM TO SPEAK IN APPLETON JULY 9

APPLETON, WI - June 16 - GLEEDA is proud to sponsor an Appleton appearance by Miriam Ben-Shalom, nationally recognized gay rights pioneer, at their monthly meeting on Wednesday, July 9, at 7:30pm, at the Liberty Hall Banquet and Conference Center. The topic of Miriam's presentation will be "The challenges and rewards of being an openly gay teacher."

Ben-Shalom, as a Sergeant in the US Army, was honorably discharged in 1976 for truthfully answering questions from superior officers about her sexual orientation. In 1980, the court ruled that her rights had been violated under the Army regulation prohibiting retention of homosexuals in service. Although the Army fought her reinstatement for seven years, she won several favorable rulings in 1987, forcing the Army to allow her to serve out her original term and to re-enlist, which she did.

Ben-Shalom currently supports herself by teaching special needs kids who are considered "at risk" students in the Milwaukee Public Schools, which will serve as a focus for her presentation on July 9.

The presentation will begin at 7:30pm, following a 6:00pm social and 6:30pm dinner. The public is welcome to attend. Liberty Hall is located near the intersection of Highways 441 and CE (College Avenue).

For additional information, call Marty at 414/830-2065 or write to GLEEDA at PO Box 102, Appleton, WI 54912-0102.

GLEEDA (the Gay and Lesbian Education and Economic Development Alliance) is a growing network of lesbian and gay-friendly individuals, families, businesses and organizations throughout the Fox Valley. Meetings are usually held on the second Wednesday of each month. To receive a sample copy of their bimonthly newsletter or for additional information, write to GLEEDA, PO Box 102, Appleton, WI 54912-0102, or call 414/830-2065.

Retraction Statement

Recently Quest ran an ad for Za's videobar in Green Bay advertising a Milwaukee based male strip group billed as RAW Entertainment. Johnny Bell, one of the dancers whose picture was featured in the ad is upset since he was unaware his picture was going to be used for the ad.

Za's and Quest were under the understanding that a verbal agreement had been made with the manager of the group and that the dancers pictured would be the ones who would appear at the club. The dancers did not show up for the show and Za's refunded the cover charges customers paid to see the show.

Quest and Za's apologize that Mr. Bell's picture was used without his knowledge and we will not use his likeness in the future. We certainly did not intend to mislead.

At the same time we would love an apology from the show promoter and dancers who failed to appear, call to warn us they were not coming or even call later to explain why they did a no show. The excuse presented weeks later was car trouble.

It is unprofessional conduct such as this that leads many club owners including Za's to be reluctant to give new talent a shot at the stage.

LEATHER/FETISH

by Papa Joe

Major cities are holding their Gay Pride celebrations and Parades the weekend of the 28-29. It is a great weekend to take in those towns. Many of you go to Chicago, you folks in N.W. Wis. do the Twin Cities. Just yesterday, I ran into a group going to Toronto for what they claim is the grand-daddy of all Gay Pride celebrations.

It doesn't matter which one you go to, they are all worthwhile if you can stand the fun under the hot sun, standing on hot concrete, eating bushels of food, drinking gallons of hootch, the elbowing and waiting in line for the john.

Come to think of it, it's sorta why I go. Much like a family reunion, ainna? I really get a warm feeling inside when I rubbed elbows with so many new faces and realized that in spirit, we are all family, no matter what we look like and where we are.

Were you also wondering about the schedule for Milwaukee PrideFest in 1998?? If on the same second weekend at the lakefront, it will happen when and where Harley Davidson is planing to do the 95th Reunion in '98.

Wouldn't that be nice, but with 100,000 bikes, there wouldn't be room to park a car anywhere near downtown. One hell of a contingent of Harleys in the parade with those of us who are queer, our friends and just plain good Harley folks.

Make your plans for next year, but for now, pencil in the Pride Fest weekend. You can bet Harley plans ain't gonna change now that they have all those weekend packages sold.

Speaking of Harleys, a local group of The Great Lakes Harley Riders, (GLHR) did a ride to a Riders cottage on the West Twin out of Two Rivers. After Lunch at Smith Bros. Fish Shanty, 'ol Fearless Fred, great leader of this ride, took off toward Kettle Moraine area only to run into loose and freshly tarred gravel on some county's back road not on the map. Needless to say, back tracking was in order. All in all a good time. Pictures soon.

FYI, GLHR is an international network of Gay Male Harley owners and their mates. It happened when a group of Wisconsin area Gay Harley Men thought it would be nice to meet bros coming in for the 90th. There was no intention of continuing on or growing to the point there are 100 Riders and international. It seems to be successful because there are no rules, dues or meetings and that fits the Biker lifestyle.

In '98, the local GLHRs will be trying to accommodate Gay bros coming in for the 95th Reunion with housing, tenting, etc. along with a list of Gay places to go and things to see while in the Milwaukee area. If any of you are comfortable with housing an out of town biker or two and have secure bike parking, you probably can pick up a few bucks. There is plenty of time, but, if interested, sent info to me and I'll pass it along.

Before I get in trouble for not being politically correct, it is not JUST ALL MALE bikers because of any rules, for there are none. A Lesbian Harley owner can get on the roster. Thus far, all who have inquired have refused to sign on. Can't blame them.

This non club is also a disappointment to those who need structured and leadership or have a need to control.

Welcome back Robert J, The Main Club, now located at 1217 Tower Ave. in Superior. Much luck to you and Kurt. I see that David M. flashed the word around the world.

Bob told me that opportunity presented itself and he took it and opened. His first day of business was the 12th and the Grand Opening Celebration will be July 25 & 26.

You can also e mail The Main Club at main-club@skypoint.com

While in that neck of the State, The ATons out of Minneapolis, home page had the following up coming info.

LeatherPride. Sunday, June 29, at the Gay 90's - Men's Room Bar & Dance Annex 4 - 9 pm. Join Them, The Black Guard, The Knights of Leather, The MnBears and NSGRA (Northern Star Gay Rodeo Assoc.) for a celebration of Leather Pride and to welcome home Kevin Cwayna, International Mr. Leather 1997. There will be food, beer, soda, door prizes and a bootblack. Cost is $7, $5 with Pride Button.

For you who are interested in the ATONS can call President Paul R. at 333-4458 for info relating to meeting, events etc. Or check out their website (<http://www.starbase21.com/ATONS>).

from Russ/Argonauts

The Argonauts would like to thank those who patronized the beer tent that we jointly manned with the Castaways M. C. at Pridefest. Met many new friends, and renewed some old acquaintances. Thank all of you for the tips, they will be put in our Argonauts Charities Fund, and be distributed in the community as needed.

The Milwaukee Drummer Contest people are doing a warm-up beer bust Saturday, July 12 at SWS Docks. This would be a good time for all of you who are interested in entering to find out what is expected. Warren said, beer bust, prizes, bartabs and a male auction?? will be part of the festivities. Word is out an after hour party will follow.

The Drummer contests differ from many other leather contest, in that a fantasy is required of the contestants. This can vary from a sensuous dance in a cat suit to heavy master/slave scenes and are designed to give some insight to the contestant as well as entertain the audience. A vivid imagination and the ability to "work it" in front of an audience will place well.

AIDS WALK WISCONSIN REGISTRATION IN FULL SWING!

It is time to start registering and organizing your team for the 1997 AIDS Walk Wisconsin on Sun., Sept. 21, along Milwaukee's lakefront. The AIDS Resource Center of Wisconsin, Inc. (ARCW), producer of the event, is encouraging everyone to start registering to help reach the $1.1 million goal.

"AIDS Walk is the state's largest fund raising event in which over 12,000 walkers of all ages from all corners of the state participated last year," said Marge Beil, director of special events for ARCW. "This year, Walk organizers are urging walkers to form a team of friends, family members or co-workers to help increase dollars raised to fight AIDS."

The day of the Walk begins with a breakfast at the Italian Community Center. Tickets for the breakfast are available and can be purchased by calling the Walk hotline at 800-348-WALK. Walk- sign-in begins at 10:30 am, opening ceremonies will be at noon and the Walk will begin at 12:30 at the Summerfest grounds.

Carole Meekins, of channel 4 (WTMJ) will be the mistress of ceremonies for the breakfast.

200,000 Expected for Chicago's Pride Parade!

Chicago's 28th Annual Gay and Lesbian Pride Parade on Sun., June 29, is expected to attract close to 200,000 people in the parade procession, along the parade route, and at the Rally in Lincoln Park afterwards. Using the international theme "Equality Through Visibility", the parade will step off with close to 200 parade entries, which includes community businesses, organizations and politicians.

Pride Parade commemorates the night in June, 1969, when gays and lesbians fought back during a raid at the Stonewall Inn, a New York City gay bar. Gay bars were routinely raided by police in the 1960's across the country. That night a riot ensued kicking off the formation of the modern day Gay & Lesbian Rights Movement. Since that time, the parades have grown into celebrations that include social as well as political expressions of community pride.

Special guest at this year's Pride Day Celebration will be Frank Buttino, a former FBI agent who was fired by the FBI after they learned he was gay. His 1993 book -- "A Special Agent - Gay and Inside the FBI" -- records his experiences.

From Gus/Unicorn of Madison (due to space, I did a chop job, sorry) The Knights and Knaves of the Unicorns have been toiling in order to get St. Unicorns, the InQuest run site ready for the arrival of all conquistadors. Last weekend we got the stage area and two-story enclosed dungeon ready, tilled the mud pit, and as this is Wisconsin — thistle destruction. This weekend we will fill the 30 man hot tub — with water. No comment from me

The InQuest Run is July 4-6, 1997 There is available space. Interested persons should check their local bars for applications or posted announcements, or contact us at P.O. 536, Madison, WI 53701 or call (608) 277-9099.

Group(s) wishing to sponsor an event, party etc., should call or write ASAP.

Besides the run, we also are preparing for the Magic Picnic, July 19 where we will be doing security again this year.

Speaking of parties in July, Saturday the 5th, the annual Manitowoc party on the lake, Boot Hollow on the 19th, talk of a Boot event in July, but, as you can see, weekends are filling up fast.

Also on the 19th, The Rodeo Riders out of Chicago are doing a club night at The Boot Camp.

That's it for now folks, but I must make a comment to those who have commented and or wondered why I have not been mentioning Si Smits or the Boot Camp in the last 3 or so issues. It was by request of my editor Mark after he has been getting flack (never to me) about "THE MALLIEN PROBLEM" (a long story, which I am getting a handle on) and at least one other person, a close friend of Si's who requested the same.

Sorry, guys, I cannot go along with the request. Look at the above comment about the Rodeo Riders doing a club nite at "The bar I Have Been Asked Not Allow To Mention."

For a lot of years, while owning a Gay bar, organizing events and contests, etc, I have convinced a lot of people I have shit for brains. Some were right on. Through it all, I have noticed that just like in a real war, the higher you stick your head up, the more it gets shot at by your enemy.

I have been taught, if after you gave it your best, you screw up, admit to it and move on AND when you get it right or are successful, shut up and be grateful as hell to all who made you look good.

Screw it, take me for me or I am out. And for the record, I take full responsibility for all comments, opinions and views I sent to be published and further, I will designate them with italics.

BTW, I welcome all comments no matter what side of any issue for which you have a feel.

Much love and summer heat to all. - Papa Joe

PUBLISHER'S NOTE:

QUEST was started as a service to the bars in Wisconsin - who we also hoped would advertise with us - and as a service to our readers who frequent those bars. We are a small operation and do the best job we can with our limited resources, reporting what is happening out there so you can make informed choices on where to spend your gay dollars.

We try to be fair to all concerned, and sometimes we make mistakes. If you see something you feel is incorrect, please let us know.

QUEST thanks Papa Joe for his considerable time and effort putting Leather Fetish together each issue (for no pay). We also invite others to come to us with ideas and suggestions on how we can continue to improve and grow.

While I can't promise to do everything you might ask of me, I am always available to listen to your suggestions. Please call me toll free anytime after noon. 800 5QUESTS (800-578-3785)
