PAST/OUT

BY DAVID BIANCO

September, 1955 (42 years ago this month): The Daughters of Bilitis is founded in San Francisco.

Who were the Daughters of Bilitis?

The first lesbian organization in the United States was the Daughters of Bilitis (DOB), which started as a social group of less than a dozen women meeting in members' homes in San Francisco. The group was founded by lovers Phyllis Lyon and Del Martin, who chose name "Daughters of Bilitis" to refer to a French poem set on the Isle of Lesbos entitled "Song of Bilitis." Lyon and Martin felt the name sounded "like any other women's lodge," such as the Daughters of the American Republic.

From its founding in September 1955, the DOB cast itself as an alternative to the lesbian bar scene, which its leaders saw as destructive to the well-being of women who participated in it. One DOB President wrote, "The defiance, disillusionment, and despair, we all know, lie there under the mask of 'gaiety' which [bar patrons] put on!"

Instead, the DOB offered mixers and discussion groups they termed "Gab 'n Javas," in which members would discuss issues such as mental health and "Should lesbians wear skirts?"

But soon the DOB's mission widened into outreach and politics. The main mechanism for outreach was the newsletter The Ladder, launched in 1956. Initially distributed to all members plus any lesbian the organizers could think of - not to mention lawyers and psychologists listed in the telephone book - The Ladder later gained nationwide circulation through subscriptions and newsstands. As such, it provided a key lifeline to other lesbians for women living in isolated areas. The Ladder contained news articles, poetry, fiction, and biographies of famous lesbians from the past.

In 1958 DOB chapters were founded in New York and Los Angeles, followed the next year by a chapter in Chicago and, briefly, Rhode Island. Most of the groups had a strained but cooperative relationship with the male-dominated homophile organizations of the time - the Mattachine Society and ONE. The women of the DOB felt the male groups tended to treat them like a "ladies' auxiliary," and some of the men resented the fact that while their own groups were open to all, the DOB was open only to women. DOB leaders reacted to this situation with a sense of humor, creating a "men's auxiliary" called the Sons of Bilitis - and handing out membership cards to gay and straight male allies that carried the initials "SOB."

The first of the DOB's five biennial conventions was held in San Francisco in 1960. The conference was interrupted by local law enforcement who demanding to know whether the attendees advocated wearing men's clothing, which was illegal at that time. The irony was that in 1960, the Daughters of Bilitis required its members to wear "appropriate" clothing to activities, and saw as part of its mission as "advocating a mode of behavior and dress acceptable to society." As Barbara Gittings, who later rebelled against the conformist DOB style, described it, DOB members at one national convention persuaded a woman who had worn masculine attire all her life to "deck herself out in as 'feminine' a manner as she could, given that female clothes were totally alien to her. Everybody rejoiced over this as though some great victory had been accomplished - the 'feminizing' of this woman."

This incident illustrates the attitude of the Daughters of Bilitis well into the mid-sixties. Its four-part statement of purpose identified, along with education of the public, participation in research projects, and promotion of legal changes, the "education of the variant ... to enable her to understand herself and make her adjustment to society." On several occasions, psychiatrists and other "experts" who had contempt for homosexuality were invited to speak to DOB events. Even the name of the newsletter implied that the DOB existed to bring lesbians out of a debased state and up "the ladder" of acceptance.

In the mid-1960s, Gittings began to use her position as editor of The Ladder to encourage a change in the DOB's stance. She began to use the word "lesbian" on the cover, and wrote columns urging women to come out and criticizing the dependence on medical "experts." Then, in May 1965 she printed a long article by Franklin Kameny, the leader of the most aggressive, outspoken wing of the homophile movement. In his piece, Kameny debunked the "gay is sick" point of view and urged readers to go beyond supporting research into homosexuality's causes and cures and instead focus on "the often less pleasant rough-and-tumble of political and social activism."

By the late 1960s, many members of the Daughters of Bilitis had embraced the feminist critique of American society, and much of the energy of American lesbians was dedicated to the feminist and gay liberation movements. The DOB was so divided between the old guard and the new style that at the 1970 convention the national structure was dissolved, The Ladder ceased publication, and the local chapters went their own ways, mostly dissolving within a few years. The Daughters of Bilitis played a crucial role in breaking the ice for lesbian organizing, but its long-standing insistence on conformity and acceptance by mainstream society made it ill-suited for the feminist 1970s.

HOLY HOLLY!

It's always been an interesting challenge for me to interview people for this column when I know them personally. I mean, I think I know enough about them that I might not ask anything interesting, or I might not get the responses I had hoped for, familiarity breeding contempt.

I was happy to interview ZA's Bartender Jimmy Nelson, otherwise known as Miss Holly Hot Damn, because this is someone who I like not only as the guy who gives me my drinks strong, but also as the girl who burns up the stage when performing. Most Green Bay patrons will recognize her as one of the performers of the bar's Friday Night Drag Show. She's also the uncontested winner of this year's Miss Gay Green Bay USofA. When I asked her about winning sans competition, she noted the she was very happy to represent the city at the State level, but realizes that she has a unique challenge ahead of her. She also sends kudos to the judges for all of their input.

After settling into the Java's Lounge and getting a drink, I started my interview with Holly by asking about her life before the bar.

Holly Hot Damn: I grew up in the Upper Peninsula, in Michigan, graduated Class of '91.

Jess Littleman: Why did you move down to Green Bay?

HHD: Why? Actually, I moved down because of the first guy I started seeing. I wanted to break away anyway, so that gave me the first opportunity to. I was always scared to move; so he gave me a new door to open up in my life.

JL: Did you start bartending at ZA's right away?

HHD: No, actually I didn't. I worked at the CNA for five years--two and a half down here. I always wanted to [tend bar at ZA's]...

JL: Customers seem to really like seeing you behind the bar.

HHD: Well, some do, some don't. A lot of times, I make an ass out of myself behind the bar. They get a kick out of it. I'll say or do something really stupid. I'm personally kind of shy behind the bar, but once I get motivated, once I get people to laugh--maybe buy them a shot or something. A lot of people who come in, I know what they drink, how they want it made, and that works...

There are people that know me [as Jimmy] but don't like me because they like Holly.

JL: Seriously?

HHD: There are people who won't come up to me or talk to me, but when Holly is out--Wham! They're right there. I think it's kind of funny!

JL: Do you know if there are any people who know you as both but don't realize it's the same person?

HHD: Yes! In the last couple of months there have been a couple of new people that have been coming out who know me and they know Holly, but they've never really connected it. So, somebody that knows me as both will say, "Well, that's Jimmy the bartender!" They'll say "No, shut up!" And then I'll say, "Yeah!" They're really shocked, they'll look and look and look, and I'll say, "Yep--it's me!" For me, it's kind of like a little glory trip for myself.

JL: It means you're doing your job correctly.

HHD: Yeah, apparently! I'm doing something right... when people can't distinguish...

JL: What's coming up for Holly in the future?

HHD: I don't know if I'll be doing this for the next twenty thousand years. What I want right now are the two Green Bay titles, kind of following in my drag mother's footsteps--Miss Kelli Jo Klein. Go for the Green Bay, go for the Emerald City. If I don't get the Emerald City right off the bat next year, I'll keep going for it. After those two titles, I might take a break and go on to performing again just for fun.

I have a couple of shows lined up for the next year that I want to do before I give up my crown.

JL: Did you perform at the NEW Pride Picnic this year?

HHD: I did, but I ended up getting kind of ill! (Laughs) I ended up slashing my number in half. It was the first year I've ever performed outside...

JL: Not, "Outside of the bar"; just plain "OUTSIDE!"

HHD: ...yeah, it was outside, on a hill, in the grass... I've never done that before! I wore thick enough heels, Thank God! I wasn't sinking like all the other queens. I was expecting it to be a little cooler for the picnic. I wasn't expecting the heat. I dressed in all black--black leather jacket, pants--the worst thing I did was getting dressed forty-five minutes before I went on and I just sat in this hot bar. By the time I got to my number, I got halfway through the song, I got dizzy, and thought, "I'm gonna get sick! Cut my song and go!" I could puke out here...

JL: That's one way to make an impression.

HHD: No, no, no, no! (Both laugh)

It's always a pleasure to interview someone that I know, and Jimmy, a.k.a. Holly Hot Damn was not an exception. Any chance you may have to visit him in the bar or her onstage, it's well worth your time.

"The MTA requested putting clothes on the shirtless couple and we complied," said Movo Media CEO Mark Terwilliger. "Far more provocative panels for perfume, movies and underwear are routinely displayed by outdoor agencies on behalf of their clients." Terwilliger terms the rejection as discriminatory and homophobic.

"The MTA is clearly conducting itself under two sets of standards," add Movo Media president Gregg Collins. "We're just asking for an equal opportunity to conduct our business."

Southeast Wis. AIDS Project Seeks Volunteers

Kenosha---Volunteers are needed for the Southeast Wisconsin AIDS Project (SEWAP). SEWAP is a non-profit organization which provides AIDS prevention services for the general public and support services for persons living with HIV/AIDS. SEWAP serves Kenosha, Racine and Walworth counties.

Training is offered to anyone who is interested in helping; volunteers from all three counties are needed for community education, support services for HIV positive clients, and general office support.

Interested persons must complete an application and attend one orientation session: Tues., Oct. 14, 6-8:30 pm or Sat., Oct. 18, 10-12:30 pm. To register and receive an application, telephone (414) 657-6644 or 800-824-6601.

SEWAP is a service agency of the AIDS Resource Center of Wisconsin, Inc.

National Task Force on AIDS Prevention Presents 8th Annual Gay Men of Color AIDS Institute

San Francisco, CA---The Horizons Foundation recently awarded New Village a $4,000 grant to support the agency's social marketing campaign targeting African-American gay and bisexual men. New Village, formerly Brothers Network, will launch a visibility campaign to reinvigorate prevention efforts and encourage those living HIV/AIDS to access treatment and care prior to the onset of the disease. The campaign, a model of community wellness, arrives at a time when the San Francisco AIDS Office projects that 16% of those living with HIV infection in the City are African-American, nearly double the percentage of the entire Black population in San Francisco. Of this figure, 74% are gay and bisexual men, including gay and bisexual IV drug users. This rate of infection shows a continually rising sero-prevalence rate of 59% for this same population.

Gay Men Can't Touch

NY's Public Agency, MTA, Bans Gay Ad

Los Angeles--Movo Media, Inc., one of the nation's largest telephone dating services, has stumbled upon a solid wall of resistance to their gay-oriented advertising efforts by the New York Metro Transit Authority's outdoor agencies. The advertisement, which features a male couple embracing, was turned down by the MTA as unacceptable. Placement was scheduled for the heavily gay areas of Chelsea and Greenwich Village.

The ad rejected by New York's MTA for being too provocative. Below is the billboard in L.A. just two minutes away from Sunset Blvd's club scene.

Movo currently has an advertisement, of the same male couple, displayed on a billboard in Los Angeles, and other billboards are slated to go up in Chicago and Miami Beach.

sion - "situation" is probably a better word!

Cafe Melange is located on the street floor in the historic landmark hotel, located at 720 Old World Third St.

The party starts at noon (no cover charge, of course) and it's a potluck; bring a pass dish if you can.

Entertainers who will perform are donating their services: G. T. Booker (acoustic folk); Wally Pate (show tunes and standards); Sheila, Dave & Bob (swing, show tunes & standards); Melissa Hacker (acoustic folk and originals); Milwaukee Mandolin (acoustic string); Amy Rohen (acoustic folk & originals); Jerry Grillo (standards & show tunes); Mrs. Fun (pop/jazz originals) and John Schneider and Claire Morkin (superb standards and show tunes).

Larry Speaks Up for Longtime Residents!

Krueger writes with tremendous compassion about the 98 permanent residents of the hotel: "Many are elderly, on fixed incomes and have been there a long time. I believe the hotel will be remodeled by its new owner, which is good for downtown. I also believe the reason they're not renewing any leases, including the permanent residents, is they're going to be asked to move."

He continues, "This is not one of those City of Milwaukee buyouts. The residents do not automatically get payment to help pay for moving. Since no one has a lease, will these folks (many of them close to matching the hotel's age), be required to move with a thirty day drop of the hat? Does that include some of our fine winter months?"

"I do not know what protection there is for month-to-month tenants. I do know many of these fine hotel 'perms' and I am concerned. All the hotel management has to say is that 'nothing has been decided.' My ass, nothing has been decided. The new owner spend $2.4 million to buy the hotel and he's not sure what he wants to do?! If he had good news for the tenants (i.e. - 'you can stay'), he would tell them."

Larry concludes, "It would be nice if these not-so-permanent 'perms' had an answer about their future and what protection, if any, they had."

Larry's final memo to the media says "Thank you very much for the ten years of 'Melange'; SAY GOOD NIGHT, GRACIE."

The Cafe Melange entertainment schedule between now and the closing party is listed above in the Diversion section calendar.

Editor's Note: We have a healthy respect for Larry and wish him God's best! He is a trouper; this has to be one of the toughest things he and his staff have ever encountered. We care, too!

It's Flu Shot Time Again!

Once again, flu shots will be offered at The M & M Club (upper level banquet room) on Thurs., Oct. 16, 6-9 pm, and on Tues., Oct. 21, 7-10 pm. The vaccinations continue to be recommended for individuals who are immune compromised and their care takers.

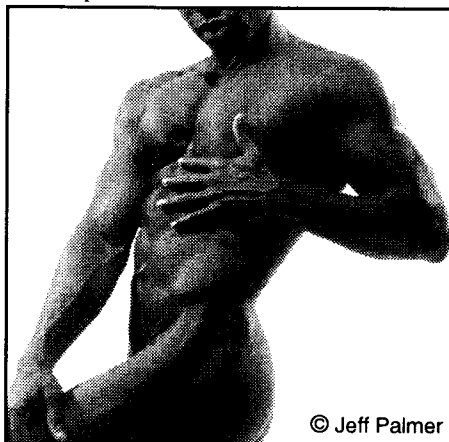

The community outreach is sponsored by The Gay & Lesbian Nurses' Association, The M & M Club, The Milwaukee Health Department, BESTD Clinic, In Step, Q-Voice and The Wisconsin Light.

Flus shots are free; however, donations are accepted. FMI, contact BESTD Clinic (414) 272-2144 or Jeff Miller at (414) 817-0957.

LEATHER/FETISH

by Papa Joe

Don and Warren's commitment ceremony and party was a great time. We wish them much happiness in St. Louis.

Speaking of commitments, the two Northwood farm "brides" should have been. (committed, that is). They were pretty as a picture (NOT) and as promised (in spite of the black mail paid), the pictures are "enclosed."

Da brides are in the long dresses, yes, that is a gold lame' gown on one bride's mudder. The guy with knobby knees is the ugly step-brother of the udder bride.

We didn't have a commitment ceremony, but as of this writing, Lee and I are entering our thirteenth year together. We met at the great Atons Flood Run in S.E. Minn. So while the Atons celebrate their 25 years, we will be marking ours with fond memories of that run and the years since.

Sat., Oct. 18 - The Castaways bar crawl to Chicago will take place. The bus leaves The 1100 Club at 7:30 PM and will arrive back at 6 am. Cost is $20. Tickets are still available at the 1100 Club and from Castaway members.

Saturday, Oct. 4, 10 PM at the 1100 Club - The Castaways and The Unicorns are hosting a joint club night. This Milwaukee/Madison joint venture is to show the diversity and harmony found in the L/L communities of Wisconsin.

October is "National Gay/Lesbian History Month" and both clubs plan to "make history that night."

The Unicorns are doing demonstrations for the enlightenment and entertainment of the crowd. The $5 beer or soda bust will include snacks and raffle prizes.

This is an invitation for any and all of the Milwaukee Gay/Lesbian community to come and meet some of our members — and have a good time!

In other news, we are developing our long-range plans for our club run next summer. And we received two new applications for membership. This, along with our newly elected pledges (Jeff and Bob), is making our Pledge Master John a very busy man — he's not complaining!

Oct. 4, 10 PM - Club night with raffle & Nov. 1, 10 PM, Saint Camillus HIV/AIDS Ministry benefit club night - No club night in December.

Of all the charities in America, the Acton Institute for the Study of Religion and Liberty has named St. Camillus HIV/AIDS Ministry among 200 of the most effective.

The Firebirds Nov. club night will be to benefit the Raphael House, a residence associated with the Ministry of HIV+ persons. Be aware, the word Ministry as used here, is not limiting to religion or some sect thereof - - It is ministering to the needs of all HIV+/AIDS persons. It deserves our support.

To put my money where my mouth is ,and ,hopefully to get a few others in the mood, I will contribute at least $100.00 worth of leather items to the raffle or auction. So Randy, when you get back from Folsum St., let me know what you need.

Mufasa/ ONYX

For those of you who can't make their anniversary party or didn't meet these hot men at their last club night (1100 Club) PrideFest weekend, plan on being at their joint club night with the Oberons. Besides being super eye candy, they are neat men. You will enjoy.

Mr. International Rubber '98 contest has been changed. New date Sat. Nov. 8, 8:30 PM at Cell Block. Sun., the 9th, The Chicago Eagle is hosting the Mr. World Rubber contest.

You talk about stretching out a week end! ~ pun intended.

While speaking of Chicago, an enterprising young man whose e mail address is Boot Heels@aol.com, with little more than a one week notice, using the net, pulled together an unofficial cowboy boot night at Touche. It was a success. Goes to show you, what you can do, if you just do it. If you want to get on his list, you know what to do.

Speaking of speciality groups like the above, there are plenty more. Last issue there was the D/s. There are leather, rubber, latex and vinyl specialities and fetishes, boots of all descriptions, pervy parties as well as the more out in front groups like the bears and L/L clubs. If you know of some that want or should be mentioned in their monthly calendar. If you have e mail, you can get it electronically at rogerjh@mcs.com. Also available at the bar.

Chuck R & Chuck R - how come you don't write from Chicago, already? Hey, you, too, Peter T and John C. You break your writing fingers? Papa can't write what you don't send.

It is the 1997 Mr. Minnesota Leather Contest weekend in the Twin Cities. Starts Thurs., 9 PM at the Brass Rail, Fri. at Metro Underground; Sat., the contest and dance at Merto Underground and finishes up on Sunday evening with boots and boxers night at the Saloon. The event is sponsored by a lot of groups including The Black Guard (who promised at NorthWoods, to send info) and Sober Leather, Minneapolis, to name just two.

This sounds like a lot of fun, I hope someone ships us a write up and some pictures. That's a hint, yous guys.

And last of all, just in, sad word from Chicago.

Earlier this month, De'Jon Karlae, well known by the L/L community in Chicago and long time friend of many of us in Wisconsin, died after an extended bout with AIDS. A memorial service will be held the residence at 303 W. Berry St., at 1 PM. This is a residence for HIV+ /AIDS persons where De'jon lived for several years.

Our condolences to his mother and father, Barbara and Albert Johnson Sr., as well as to long time companion and loving friend, Brian.

We shall miss the beauty of our friend and long remember his kindness and love.

Ink this in: Sat., Nov. 8, Castaways MC 18th anniversary dinner. Sat., Jan. 31, Wisconsin Bootmens & Great Lake Harley Riders leather swap meet and party.

---Peace, Papa

Swimsuit! Mr. Gay USA

Mr. Florida USA Josh Tucker, of Orlando, was the winner; 1st runnerup was Mr. Georgia USA, Christian, of Dallas; 2nd runnerup was Phillip Martin, 1st alternate Mr. Georgia USA, of Atlanta; 3rd runnerup was Mr. East Coast USA, Robert Young, of Charlotte, NC. The contest was held at Illusions in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina over three nights. Many of the audience looked as good as the contestants as shown below.

With 26 contestants, I couldn't show you everyone's swimsuit, but here are a few of my favorites! I also threw in a few behind the scenes shots on another page. Next issue we look at talent including past titleholders and some hot shots from a famous porn star!
